

We will give an introduction to Bass-Serre theory. This theory was developed in the 1970's to study the algebraic structure of groups acting on trees. Central in this talk will be amalgamated products and how one can recognize these groups by looking at the action of the group on some (infinite) tree